1. Introduction

The Council of the City of Vincent is the elected body responsible for the administration of the City in the best interests of its residents. The Council is committed to providing open, responsive and accountable government.

The Local Government Act 1995 requires every Western Australian local government to prepare and adopt a code of conduct to be observed by Council Members, Committee Members, and employees.

The Code of Conduct provides Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors in the City of Vincent with the minimum standard of professional conduct and behaviour in carrying out their functions and responsibilities. The Code addresses ethical responsibility and encourages greater transparency and accountability. It encourages a commitment to ethical and professional behaviour and outlines principles upon which individual and collective local government behaviours are to be based.

The Code should be read in conjunction with the Local Government Act 1995, the Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007 and other legislation that affect Council Members, Committee Members and employees and the Code does not override or affect those provisions or requirements.

The Code is complementary to the principles adopted in the Local Government Act 1995 which incorporate four fundamental aims:

- (a) Better decision making by local governments
- (b) Greater community participation in the decisions and affairs of local governments
- (c) Greater accountability of local governments to their communities
- (d) More efficient and effective local government

In order to ensure that the Code remains current and relevant, it will be reviewed and presented to Council for re-adoption no more than three months after each Ordinary Council Election.

2. Values, Principles and Behaviour

The organisational values and culture are an important part of working at the City of Vincent. Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors are expected to work within City of Vincent values and display the following behaviours:

Caring and Empathy

- Being considerate of others and believing in their ability. Encouraging and acknowledging effort and initiative.

Innovation & Diversity

- Encouraging creativity, innovation and initiative to realise the vibrancy and diversity of our vision.

Principles

As a general principle, a person in his or her capacity as a Council Member, Committee Member, employee or contractor should:

- Act with reasonable care and diligence
- Act with honesty and integrity
- Act lawfully
- Avoid damage to the reputation of the local government
- Be open and accountable to the public
- Base decisions on relevant and factually correct information
- Treat others with respect and fairness
- Not be impaired by mind affecting substances

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors must avoid behaviour and conduct that:

- Contravenes the Local Government Act 1995 and the City's relevant administrative requirements
- Is improper or unethical
- Is an abuse of power or otherwise amounts to misconduct
- Causes, comprises or involves intimidation, harassment or verbal abuse
- Causes, comprises or involves discrimination or adverse treatment in relation to employment
- Causes, comprises or involves prejudice in the provision of a service to the community

Fraudulent and Corrupt Conduct

Fraud is a dishonest activity that causes actual or potential financial loss to a person or the City. Corrupt conduct is behaviour that lacks virtue or integrity, including when a Council Member, Committee Member, employee or contractor uses or attempts to use their position for personal advantage. The Criminal Code makes it illegal for a public officer (including a Council Member, Committee Member or employee) to engage in fraud and/or corruption.

Performance of Duties

Council Members, Committee Members and employees have a legal duty of fidelity to act in the best interests of the City. While on duty, employees and contractors must give their time and attention to the City's business and ensure that their work is carried out efficiently and effectively, so that their standard of work reflects favourably both on them and on the City.

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors must exercise reasonable care and diligence in the performance of their duties, being consistent in their decision-making and treating all matters on individual merits. Council Members and Committee Members will be as informed as possible to enable them to perform their role.

Role of the Council, Mayor, Council Members and CEO

The role of the Council, Mayor, Council Members and CEO is set out in the Local Government Act 1995, sections 2.7 – 2.10. In fulfilling the various roles, Council Members' activities will focus on:

- (a) Achieving a balance in the diversity of community views to develop an overall strategy for the future of the community
- (b) Achieving sound financial management and accountability in relation to the City's finances
- (c) Ensuring that appropriate mechanisms are in place to deal with the prompt handling of residents' concerns
- (d) Working with other governments and organisations to achieve benefits for the community at both a local and regional level
- (e) Being aware of the statutory obligations imposed on Council Members and on local governments

Relationships between Council Members, Committee Members and Employees

Council Members, Committee Members and employees must have mutual respect for the role that each party plays to achieve the City's corporate goals and implement the City's strategies. All parties should understand each other's role as specified in the Local Government Act 1995 and other legislation. To achieve this, Council Members and Committee Members must:

- (a) Accept that their role is one of leadership, and not a management or administrative role
- (b) Acknowledge that they have no capacity to individually direct employees and contractors to carry out particular functions
- (c) Refrain from publicly criticising employees in a way that casts aspersions on their professional competence or credibility
- (d) Ensure that no restriction or undue influence is placed on the ability of employees to give professional advice to Council

Employees ought to recognise that a Council Member's views and opinions often reflect valid community viewpoints that should be considered in conjunction with professional opinion. Employees are to make every effort to assist Council Members in the performance of their role and to achieve the satisfactory resolution of issues that may arise in the performance of that role.

Regulations 9 and 10 of the Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007 apply to Elected Members in respect of involvement in the City's administration and relationships with employees:

9. Prohibition against involvement in administration

- (1) A person who is a council member must not undertake a task that contributes to the administration of the local government unless authorised by the council or by the CEO to undertake that task.
- (2) Subregulation (1) does not apply to anything that a council member does as part of the deliberations at a council or committee meeting.

10. Relations with local government employees

- (1) A person who is a council member must not –
 - (a) direct or attempt to direct a person who is a local government employee to do or not to do anything in the person's capacity as a local government employee; or
 - (b) attempt to influence, by means of a threat or the promise of a reward, the conduct of a person who is a local government employee in the person's capacity as a local government employee.
- (2) Subregulation (1) does not apply to anything that a council member does as part of the deliberations at a council or committee meeting.
- (3) If a person, in his or her capacity as a council member, is attending a council meeting, committee meeting or other organised event and members of the public are present, the person must not, either orally, in writing or by any other means –
 - (a) make a statement that a local government employee is incompetent or dishonest; or
 - (b) use offensive or objectionable expressions in reference to a local government employee.
- (4) Subregulation (3)(a) does not apply to conduct that is unlawful under The Criminal Code Chapter XXXV.

Compliance with Local Laws and Policies

Council Members, Committee Members and employees and contractors must comply with local laws and Council policies. Employees and contractors must also comply with all administrative policies and procedures of the City. Council Members and Committee Members are to consider the administrative policies and procedures of the City to guide them in their decision-making responsibilities.

Appointments to External Boards, Committees and Working Groups

Council Members, Committee Members employees and contractors representing the City on external organisations, boards, committees and working groups are to ensure that they clearly understand the basis of their appointment; provide regular reports on the activities of the organisation in accordance with the confidentiality requirements of that organization; and represent the City's interests on all matters relating to that organisation while maintaining the confidentiality requirements of the City.

Decision-making

Council Members, Committee Members and employees have a duty to ensure that decisions are properly made and that parties involved in are dealt with fairly. Care must be taken to avoid impropriety and also to avoid any occasion for suspicion and any appearance of improper conduct.

When making decisions, it is essential that Council Members, Committee Members and employees are highly conscious of the potential for even the slightest impropriety to lead to suspicion of misconduct. This means Council Members, Committee Members and employees must ensure that no action, statement or communication between themselves and a third party conveys any suggestion of willingness to provide concessions or preferential treatment.

Lobbying

"Lobbying" is used to cover those types of communication between local government Council Members and the community and include representations to Council Members by special interest groups, by individuals with a direct interest in a council decision and by advocates acting on behalf of others.

Lobbying is common in local government. The most common form occurs when a group or individual makes direct contact with a Council Member in an attempt to influence a council decision.

Appropriate lobbying of Council Members is considered normal. In many cases lobbying is part of the democratic process and is an acceptable feature of the relationship between citizens and their elected representatives.

Inappropriate Lobbying

It is in the public interest that lobbying is fair and does not undermine public confidence in impartial decision-making. Lobbying is a two-way process between Council Members and lobbyists.

Council Members should take care that their duty to consider issues fairly and properly is not compromised by participating in lobbying practices that are outside the bounds of appropriate or lawful behaviour.

Generally, inappropriate or unlawful conduct on the part of someone lobbying a Council Member usually involves an attempt to obtain preferential consideration or treatment based on factors other than the merits of the matter. Examples include:

- (a) Accepting undisclosed payments or benefits while making a decision that affects the gift giver's interests
- (b) Accepting a political donation in return for the favourable exercise of discretion during decision-making
- (c) granting access to a particular individual or group while unreasonably denying similar access requested by another party
- (d) Fettering discretion by giving undertakings to an interested party prior to considering all the information relevant to a decision
- (e) Acting in a manner that exceeds the role of a Council Member as defined in section 2.8, 2.9 or 2.10 of the Local Government Act
- (f) Disclosing confidential information while being lobbied
- (g) Being unduly influenced by factors that are irrelevant to the merits of the matter under consideration
- (h) Lobbying of by tenderers about the outcome of a tender process

Transparency

Council Members should exercise judgement when deciding whether to be involved in private meetings with people seeking to influence a council decision. Suspicions of inappropriate lobbying can occur when lobbying is not open to public scrutiny. Regardless of whether such suspicions are justified, they still have the potential to undermine public confidence in council decision-making and adversely affect a Council Member's reputation.

Transparency is a useful means of governing accountability and perceptions of fairness in lobbying processes. There are a number of ways Council Members can help ensure transparency whilst being lobbied. These include:

- (a) Documenting meetings with proponents
- (b) Generally conducting meetings in official locations, such as Council premises
- (c) Having other people present during meetings
- (d) Inviting applicants who have approached them for a meeting to discuss significant developments, to write to the City seeking a meeting with all Council Members and relevant employees
- (e) Providing copies of information presented during lobbying meetings to City employees for consideration and assessment (if required), distribution to other Council Members and filing as part of Council's records
- (f) Asking people who have requested a meeting to put their arguments in writing
- (g) Making a declaration at a Council meeting about lobbying activities they have been engaged in that are not part of Council's formal processes

Contact with Developers Register

Contact with developers is a normal and necessary function of the role of a Council Member. However, the nature and frequency of that contact can sometimes lead to allegations or perceptions of bias, influence or even corruption being made towards Council Members. Ensuring that decision-making processes are open and transparent reduces the opportunities for such allegations or perceptions to be raised.

Council Members are to record any Prescribed Contact they have with developers on the City's "Contact with Developers Register" in accordance with the City's Contact with Developers Policy. The register is maintained by the CEO and published on the City's website.

Reimbursement of Expenses

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors may claim reimbursement of expenses only in accordance with the relevant legislative provision, policy or administration procedures. Claimants shall be diligent in ensuring that the expenses claimed in accordance with Council policy relate to their function and are appropriately acquitted.

Section 5.98(2) of the Local Government Act 1995 states an Elected Member who incurs an expense of a kind prescribed as being an expense:

- (a) to be reimbursed by all local governments or
- (b) which may be approved by any local government for reimbursement and which has been approved by the local government for reimbursement, is entitled to be reimbursed for the expense in accordance with section 5.98(3) of the Local Government Act 1995.

- (a) Private and/or City address or PO Box
- (b) Business telephone number
- (c) Mobile telephone number
- (d) Email address

3. Health and Safety

Every person within the City of Vincent must take responsibility for preventing workplace related injuries and illnesses and adhering to all relevant regulations, policies and procedures. Leaders are accountable for the implementation of these requirements within the span of their control and for ensuring that supporting systems are in place. All employees and contractors must understand and follow the health and safety requirements in each City of Vincent workplace, and promptly report any circumstances that represent a threat to the safety of themselves or others.

Council Members, Committee Members, employees, contractors and visitors must refrain from carrying out their official duties or responsibilities while affected by alcohol or drugs. The possession or use of illegal substances at City of Vincent workplaces, functions or in conjunction with City of Vincent business is strictly prohibited. This includes decisions relating to recruitment, remuneration, conditions of employment, development, promotion, and termination of employment.

The City will maintain, identify and resolve issues relating to equity, and recognise opportunities for improvement. It will also require that all employees and contractors and potential employees and contractors are reviewed according to job related skills, qualifications, abilities and attitude and not with regard to non-work-related factors.

Harassment and bullying

The City of Vincent does not tolerate any form of harassment or bullying. Our values support a culture where people are treated fairly, respectfully and with dignity.

"Harassment" is an action, conduct or behaviour that is viewed as unwelcome, humiliating, intimidating or offensive by the recipient. Sexual harassment is any deliberate verbal or physical sexual conduct that is unwelcome and uninvited and that a reasonable person having regard to all the circumstances would regard the behaviour as offensive, humiliating or intimidating.

"Bullying" is repeated verbal, physical, social or psychological abuse by a person or group of people at work. Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors are expected to be inclusive, collaborative and supportive and are not to engage in any activity that could be considered to be harassment or bullying. It is important that everyone considers the implications of their behaviours and supports colleagues to raise concerns.

Discrimination

"Discrimination" means treating someone unfairly due to their race, sex, marital status, pregnancy, impairment, religious or political conviction, age, family responsibility or family status.

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors must not engage in actions or behaviours that discriminate against, or support others who discriminate against, any person. This includes, but is not limited to discrimination, on the grounds of sex, pregnancy, age, race (including their colour, nationality, descent, ethnic or religious background), political affiliation, marital status, disability, sexual orientation or transgender.

The City will ensure compliance with the principles and provisions of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 (WA). This commitment extends to recruitment and selection, promotion and advancement activities which will be solely on the basis of equity and fairness. Appointments will be based solely on merit.

All people have a right to work in an environment that is free from sexual harassment. Sexual harassment will not be tolerated in the City of Vincent.

Expression of Personal Views

Council Members are free to make their own personal position known about any matter which is pertinent to the business of the City, including Council decisions provided that it cannot be construed to be a statement on behalf of the Council.

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors will refrain from making personal statements to the media without clearly prefacing such remarks that they are personal views and not those of the Council and in any case will not adversely reflect on a Council decision.

Social Media

Council Members, Committee Members and employees are free to state their position / role with the City publicly on social media (e.g. on Facebook, LinkedIn), however, as with any other form of communication, they must ensure their behaviour on social media adheres to the City of Vincent's values, policies and the other provisions of this Code.

Such communication should always be conducted in a positive manner, should not discredit or reflect adversely on the City, its staff or its initiatives.

Council Members, Committee Members and employees should take care to ensure that work-related communication with each other occurs through official channels, not through social media.

Defamation

Comments by Council Members are covered only by qualified privilege against defamation. A Council Member can only rely on the defence of qualified privilege whilst exercising the proper discharge of their duties, and doing so in the public interest. In order to maintain qualified privilege, a Council Member should ensure that comments made are pertinent to the business of local government and they are not made maliciously or without due regard to whether they represent the truth.

5. Use of Local Government resources

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors will be scrupulously honest in their use of the local government's resources and shall not misuse them or permit their misuse by any other person or body. Local government resources should be used effectively and economically and are not to be used for private purposes unless properly authorised to do so.

The interests of a Council Member in their re-election is considered to be a personal interest and as such the reimbursement of travel expenses incurred on election matters is not appropriate. In addition, Council letterhead, the City's logo and other information that could give the impression it is official council material must not be used for these purposes.

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors must not use the City's computer resources to search for, access, download or communicate any material of an offensive, obscene, pornographic, threatening, abusive or defamatory nature.

- (b) for any other purpose, unless authorised under the Act, or authorised by the council or the CEO, to use the resources for that purpose.

6. Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest occurs when an employee's position within the City of Vincent, or their financial or other personal interests affect, have the potential to affect, or could have the appearance of affecting, their judgement, objectivity or independence.

No activities of Council Members, Committee Members and employees should conflict with work responsibilities or compromise the quality of work performance, commitment to work, or the ability to make impartial business decisions.

Council Members, Committee Members and employees must declare any actual, or perceived conflict of interest between their personal interests and the impartial fulfilment of their professional duties.

Employees must excuse themselves from any decision-making process where there is an interest that influences, or may be perceived as influencing, their ability to make objective decisions and to fulfil the responsibilities to the City.

Employees will not engage in private work with or for any person or body with an interest in a proposed or current business dealing with the local government, without first making disclosure to the CEO, or in the case of the CEO, to the Mayor. In this respect, it does not matter whether advantage is in fact obtained, as any appearance that private dealings could conflict with performance of duties must be scrupulously avoided.

Employees who exercise a recruitment, regulatory, inspectorial or other discretionary function must make a disclosure before dealing with closely associated persons, close relatives or close friends and, whenever possible, or in doubt, should disqualify themselves from dealing with those persons. This disclosure must be made in writing to their Director and/or CEO. In the case of the CEO, disclosure to the Mayor is required.

Financial Interests

Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors must comply with the laws governing financial interests, including the disclosure of financial interests, set out in the Local Government Act 1995. Sections 5.59-5.90 of the Local Government Act 1995 establish the requirements for disclosure by Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors of financial interests (including proximity interests). The onus is on Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors to identify possible financial interests (including proximity interests and non-financial interests), to determine whether an interest exists and whether any statutory exemption applies.

Impartiality Interests

For the purposes of the Code, an impartiality interest means: "an interest that could, or could reasonably be perceived to, adversely affect the impartiality of the person having the interest and includes an interest arising from kinship, friendship or membership of an association" (see regulation 34(C)(1) of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 and regulation 11(1) of the Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007). An 'impartiality interest' does not include a 'financial interest' that is subject to the requirements of the Local Government Act 1995.

An employee who has an impartiality interest in any matter to be discussed at a Council or committee meeting attended by that person must disclose the nature of the impartiality interest in a written notice given to the CEO before the meeting, or at the meeting immediately before the matter is discussed.

In addition, an employee who has given, or will give, advice in respect of any matter to be discussed at a Council or committee meeting not attended by the employee must disclose the nature of any impartiality interest he or she has in the matter in a written notice given to the CEO before the meeting, or at the time the advice is given.

An employee is excused from the requirement to disclose an impartiality interest if the failure to disclose occurs because the person did not know he or she had an impartiality interest in the matter, or did not know the matter would be discussed at the meeting and the person discloses the interest as soon as possible after becoming aware of the discussion.

Regulation 11 of the Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007 contain the provisions relating to Elected Members disclosing impartiality interests:

11. Disclosure of interest

- (1) In this regulation - interest means an interest that could, or could reasonably be perceived to, adversely affect the impartiality of the person having the interest and includes an interest arising from kinship, friendship or membership of an association.
- (2) A person who is a council member and who has an interest in any matter to be discussed at a council or committee meeting attended by the member must disclose the nature of the interest -
 - (a) in a written notice given to the CEO before the meeting; or
 - (b) at the meeting immediately before the matter is discussed.
- (3) Subregulation (2) does not apply to an interest referred to in section 5.60 of the Act.
- (4) Subregulation (2) does not apply if –
 - (a) a person who is a council member fails to disclose an interest because the person did not know he or she had an interest in the matter; or
 - (b) a person who is a council member fails to disclose an interest because the person did not know the matter in which he or she had an interest would be discussed at the meeting and the person disclosed the interest as soon as possible after the discussion began.

Disclosure of Information in Returns

Council Members and 'designated employees' must provide primary and annual returns in accordance with the requirements of Division 6 of Part 5 of the Local Government Act 1995. For these purposes, a designated employee is defined in section 5.74 of the Local Government Act 1995 to mean:

- (a) The CEO
- (b) An employee, other than the CEO, to whom any power or duty has been delegated under Division 4 of the Local Government Act 1995
- (c) An employee who is a member of a committee comprising Council Members and employees
- (d) An employee nominated by the City to be a designated employee

7. Gifts and benefits

However, it is acknowledged that there may be instances when receiving a gift is unavoidable or when refusal of a gift may be inappropriate. In these circumstances, Council Members, Committee Members, employees must comply with the provisions of the rest of this section.

- (a) a prohibited gift means:
 - (i) a gift worth $300.00 or more; or
 - (ii) a gift that is one of two or more gifts given to the member or employee by the same person within a period of six months that are in total worth $300.00 or more
- (b) activity involving a local government discretion is an activity:
 - (i) that cannot be undertaken without an authorisation from the City or

- (ii) by way of a commercial dealing with the City.

Any gift valued at $300.00 or more should be declined. If it is considered inappropriate to reject a gift worth $300.00 or more (such as in the case of a gift from a foreign dignitary), the gift should be received on behalf of the City and provided to the CEO at the first possible opportunity.

If it is believed its value approaches $300.00, the precise value of the gift should be ascertained before accepting to ensure compliance with this Code. It is also important to ensure that the full value of the gift is taken into account including all hidden costs in association with acts of hospitality.

Regulation 12 of the Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007 prohibits an Elected Member from accepting a prohibited gift (see section 8.4 below).

Notifiable Gifts

A Committee Member or employee may accept a 'notifiable gift.' However, if he or she accepts a notifiable gift from a person who:

- (a) is undertaking or seeking to undertake an activity involving a local government discretion or
 - (b) it is reasonable to believe is intended to undertake an activity involving a local government discretion
- he or she must notify the CEO within 10 days of accepting the gift.

For these purposes:

- (a) a notifiable gift means:
 - (i) a gift worth between $50.00 and $300.00 or
 - (ii) a gift that is one of two or more gifts given to an Elected Member, Committee Member or employee by the same person within a period of six months that are in total worth between $50.00 and $300.00
- (b) activity involving a local government discretion is an activity:
 - (i) that cannot be undertaken without an authorisation from the City or
 - (ii) by way of a commercial dealing with the City.

The notification to the CEO of the acceptance of a notifiable gift must be in writing and must include:

- (a) the name of the person who gave the gift
- (b) the date on which the gift was accepted
- (c) a description, and the estimated value, of the gift
- (d) the nature of the relationship between the person who is a member or employee and the person who gave the gift
- (e) if the gift is a notifiable gift

Regulation 12 of the Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007 contains similar requirements relating to the acceptance and notification of a 'notifiable gift' by an Elected Member (see section 8.4 below).

Disclosure of Election Campaign Contributions

All electoral candidates must comply with the Local Government Act 1995 and the Local Government (Elections) Regulations 1997 in disclosing electoral donations or 'gifts'. Notwithstanding, any Council Member, Committee Member, employee, contractor or any other person may report directly to the Corruption and Crime Commission any matter which that person suspects on reasonable grounds may concern misconduct that has occurred, is occurring, or may occur.

Section 3 of the Corruption and Crime Commission Act 2003 defines 'serious misconduct' as misconduct of a kind described in section 4(a), (b) or (c) of the Corruption and Crime Commission Act 2003.

Protection of Persons Reporting Unacceptable or Illegal Behaviour

The CEO is to ensure that Council Members, Committee Members, employees and contractors who report unacceptable or illegal behaviour (that is, whistle-blowers) are not in any way disadvantaged or victimised because of their actions. The CEO's action is limited to matters for which he/she has responsibility and/or jurisdiction to act.

Public Interest Disclosure Act 2003

The Public Interest Disclosure Act 2003 facilitates the reporting of public interest information and provides protection for those who report this information under that Act.
